After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting

You will choose the workshops on the day of our meeting you want to attend at the meeting.
(Limit 2)

1. Session for PW moderators- In this session, we will discuss the responsibilities and role the PW moderator plays in their local organization. Participants will have time to ask questions and discuss their concerns. Join Sharon Williams, Moderator of Central Florida Presbyterian Women
2. Session for PW Treasurers – In this session, we will discuss the role of the local PW treasurer and how PWCFP can help your organization. Jennifer will review the PW Treasurer's Manual, where to get the most up to date forms and talk about the various places that we support with our donations. Join Jennifer Jonas, Treasurer of Central Florida Presbyterian Women.
3. The Impact of the COVID-19 Pandemic on Your Family and Children- This workshop will address the mental and emotional impact of our changing world on children. It will be led by Lisa Benitez, LMHC. Lisa is the Clinical director of the Presbyterian Counseling Center in Daytona Beach.
4. Perfect Peace in the Midst of the Storm - Does "perfect peace" exist in this ever increasingly chaotic world; a world where bad things continue to happen to good people? "I lost my job...I have no idea where I will come up with the money...my loved one was tragically killed..." Does "perfect peace" really exist in our world today and do you have it? Join Elder Stacey Williams from Washington Shores Presbyterian Church as she leads a discussion meant to help us discover what it means to live in "perfect peace" today.
5. Self-Development of People - The purpose of this workshop is to get better understanding and be inform of the Types of Mission that is been done in the Presbytery of Central Florida. We will also be learning about the ministry of Self Development of People, which is part of the One Great Hour of Sharing.
